

ENGLISH LAW
& COMPLIANCE
E.L.A.C

ENGLISH STEP BY STEP!

Luis Córdoba

luis.cordoba@elac.commx

www.elac.com.mx

WhatsApp:
722 890 5442

Hello, everyone! Today we are going to talk about a very exciting topic: how to learn and acquire English step by step. Learning a new language can seem difficult and even scary at first. There are so many * words, grammar rules, and different ways to pronounce things. But the secret is to not try to learn everything at once.

Hello, everyone! Today we are going to talk about a very exciting topic: how to learn and acquire English step by step. Learning a new language can seem difficult and even scary at first. There are so many * words, grammar rules, and different ways to pronounce things. But the secret is to not try to learn everything at once.

The best way to learn English is to take it step by step, like climbing a staircase. You start at the bottom and go up one step at a time. In this essay, I will give you some simple and practical recommendations to help you on your journey.

1. Why can learning English seem difficult at first?

1. Why can learning English seem difficult at first?

2. What is the best way to learn English according to the text?

STEP 1

Step 1: Start with the basics. Before you can speak in complete sentences, you need to learn the foundation. This means learning the alphabet, basic vocabulary, and the most common verbs like “to be,” “to have,” and “to do.” Do not try to learn 100 new words every day! Instead, learn five to ten new words each day and practice using them in simple sentences.

STEP 1

Step 1: Start with the basics. Before you can speak in complete sentences, you need to learn the foundation. This means learning the alphabet, basic vocabulary, and the most common verbs like “to be,” “to have,” and “to do.” Do not try to learn 100 new words every day! Instead, learn five to ten new words each day and practice using them in simple sentences.

For example, learn the word “apple” and make a sentence: “I eat an apple.” This step is like building a strong base for a house. Without a good foundation, everything else will be difficult.

chocolate now and then doesn't hurt.

1. What are some examples of basic things you should learn first?

1. What are some examples of basic things you should learn first?

2. How many new words should you learn each day?

STEP 2

»» Step 2: Practice listening every day. Listening is one of the most important skills because you need to understand what people are saying to communicate. Start with easy materials. Watch children's cartoons or listen to slow English songs. There are also many podcasts made specifically for English learners. The key is to listen to the same content multiple times.

Next Slide

STEP 2

»» Step 2: Practice listening every day. Listening is one of the most important skills because you need to understand what people are saying to communicate. Start with easy materials. Watch children's cartoons or listen to slow English songs. There are also many podcasts made specifically for English learners. The key is to listen to the same content multiple times.

Next Slide

»» The first time, you may not understand everything. The second time, you will catch some words. The third time, you will understand much more. Your brain needs time to get used to the sounds and rhythms of the language.

1.What are some easy materials you can use for listening practice?

Next Slide

1. What are some easy materials you can use for listening practice? *

2. Why is it helpful to listen to the same content multiple times?

STEP 3

Next Slide

Start speaking, even if you make mistakes. Many students are afraid to speak because they do not want to make errors. But making mistakes is a normal and necessary part of learning! When you were a baby learning your first language, you made many mistakes too. Try to practice with friends, family, or even talk to yourself in the mirror.

STEP 3

Next Slide

Start speaking, even if you make mistakes. Many students are afraid to speak because they do not want to make errors. But making mistakes is a normal and necessary part of learning! When you were a baby learning your first language, you made many mistakes too. Try to practice with friends, family, or even talk to yourself in the mirror.

If you do not have anyone to practice with, you can use language exchange apps where you talk to people from other countries. The most important thing is to practice regularly. Do not wait until you are “perfect” because that day will never come.

1. Why are many students afraid to speak English?

1. Why are many students afraid to speak English?

2. What can you do if you do not have anyone to practice speaking with?

STEP 4

Next Slide

Read simple texts to improve your vocabulary and grammar. Reading is a fantastic way to see how English is used in a natural way. Start with books for children or graded readers, which are books written specifically for learners at different levels. You can also read news websites that have simple English versions.

STEP 4

Next Slide

Read simple texts to improve your vocabulary and grammar. Reading is a fantastic way to see how English is used in a natural way. Start with books for children or graded readers, which are books written specifically for learners at different levels. You can also read news websites that have simple English versions.

When you read, do not stop for every unknown word. Try to guess the meaning from the context first. After you finish reading, you can look up the most important new words. Reading will also help you understand how sentences are structured, which will improve your writing.

1.What are “graded readers”?

1.What are “graded readers”?

2.What should you do when you find an unknown word while reading?

STEP 5

Next Slide

Write a little every day. Writing helps you organize your thoughts and practice grammar and vocabulary. You do not need to write a long essay every day. Start with a simple journal. Write three sentences about your day. For example, "Today I went to the supermarket. I bought some bread and milk. It was a sunny day."

STEP 5

Write a little every day. Writing helps you organize your thoughts and practice grammar and vocabulary. You do not need to write a long essay every day. Start with a simple journal. Write three sentences about your day. For example, "Today I went to the supermarket. I bought some bread and milk. It was a sunny day."

You can also write messages to friends in English or leave comments on social media. Over time, your sentences will become longer and more complex. Writing also helps you see your progress because you can look back at your old writing and see how much you have improved.

1.What is a simple way to start writing in English every day?

Next Slide

1. What is a simple way to start writing in English every day?

2. How can writing help you see your progress?

STEP 6

Next Slide

Be patient and consistent. Learning a language takes time. You will not become fluent in one month or even six months. It can take years of consistent practice. But the most important thing is to practice a little every day rather than studying for many hours once a week. Find a routine that works for you. Maybe you listen to a podcast during your morning coffee, or you read a short story before bed. >>>

STEP 6

Next Slide

Be patient and consistent. Learning a language takes time. You will not become fluent in one month or even six months. It can take years of consistent practice. But the most important thing is to practice a little every day rather than studying for many hours once a week. Find a routine that works for you. Maybe you listen to a podcast during your morning coffee, or you read a short story before bed. >>>

Celebrate small victories, like understanding a song or having a short conversation. Remember, every expert was once a beginner. Keep going, and you will achieve your goal.

1. Why is consistency more important than studying for many hours once a week?

1. Why is consistency more important than studying for many hours once a week?

2. What are some small victories you can celebrate?

In conclusion, learning English is a journey, not a race. By following these steps—starting with the basics, listening daily, speaking without fear, reading simple texts, writing regularly, and being patient—you will make steady progress. Everyone learns differently, so find what works best for you and enjoy the process.

In conclusion, learning English is a journey, not a race. By following these steps—starting with the basics, listening daily, speaking without fear, reading simple texts, writing regularly, and being patient—you will make steady progress. Everyone learns differently, so find what works best for you and enjoy the process.

Learning a new language opens many doors in life, including better job opportunities, new friendships, and a deeper understanding of different cultures. I believe in you. Good luck!

1.What are the six steps recommended in this essay?

1.What are the six steps recommended in this essay?

2.What are some benefits of learning a new language?

ENGLISH LAW
& COMPLIANCE
E.L.A.C

THANK YOU

Thank you to all the students who attended this workshop!

Luis Córdoba

luis.cordobaselac.com.mx

www.elac.com.mx

WhatsApp:
722 890 5442