

WHAT IS COMPLIANCE

The firm leading this workshop is

ENGLISH LAW
& COMPLIANCE
E.L.A.C

luis.cordoba@elac.com.mx

www.elac.com.mx

7228905442

722 890 5442

www.elac.com.mx

luis.cordoba@elac.com.mx

Mexico City

Licenciado Luis Córdoba

Instructor Certificado

Competente por Secretaría de Educación Pública SEP Conocer,

estandar EC0217.01

ENGLISH LAW
& COMPLIANCE

Hello, everyone! Today we are going to talk about a very important topic: compliance. But what does this word mean? In simple terms, compliance means following the rules. These rules can be laws from the government, regulations from your company, or even social norms like being polite. Following these rules is very important for our society to work well. Without rules, there would be chaos.

Hello, everyone! Today we are going to talk about a very important topic: compliance. But what does this word mean? In simple terms, compliance means following the rules. These rules can be laws from the government, regulations from your company, or even social norms like being polite. Following these rules is very important for our society to work well. Without rules, there would be chaos.

1. What is the simple definition of compliance?

Hello, everyone! Today we are going to talk about a very important topic: compliance. But what does this word mean? In simple terms, compliance means following the rules. These rules can be laws from the government, regulations from your company, or even social norms like being polite. Following these rules is very important for our society to work well. Without rules, there would be chaos.

1. What is the simple definition of compliance?

2. Why is it important to follow rules?

One of the main reasons why compliance is important is safety. For example, when you drive a car, you must follow traffic laws like stopping at a red light. If everyone stopped at red lights, the roads would be safe. However, if people ignored this rule, there would be many accidents. In the same way, factories have safety rules to protect their workers. When everyone follows these safety rules, the risk of getting hurt is much lower.

One of the main reasons why compliance is important is safety. For example, when you drive a car, you must follow traffic laws like stopping at a red light. If everyone stopped at red lights, the roads would be safe. However, if people ignored this rule, there would be many accidents. In the same way, factories have safety rules to protect their workers. When everyone follows these safety rules, the risk of getting hurt is much lower.

---

1. How do traffic rules make our roads safer?

One of the main reasons why compliance is important is safety. For example, when you drive a car, you must follow traffic laws like stopping at a red light. If everyone stopped at red lights, the roads would be safe. However, if people ignored this rule, there would be many accidents. In the same way, factories have safety rules to protect their workers. When everyone follows these safety rules, the risk of getting hurt is much lower.

1. How do traffic rules make our roads safer?
2. Why are safety rules important in factories?

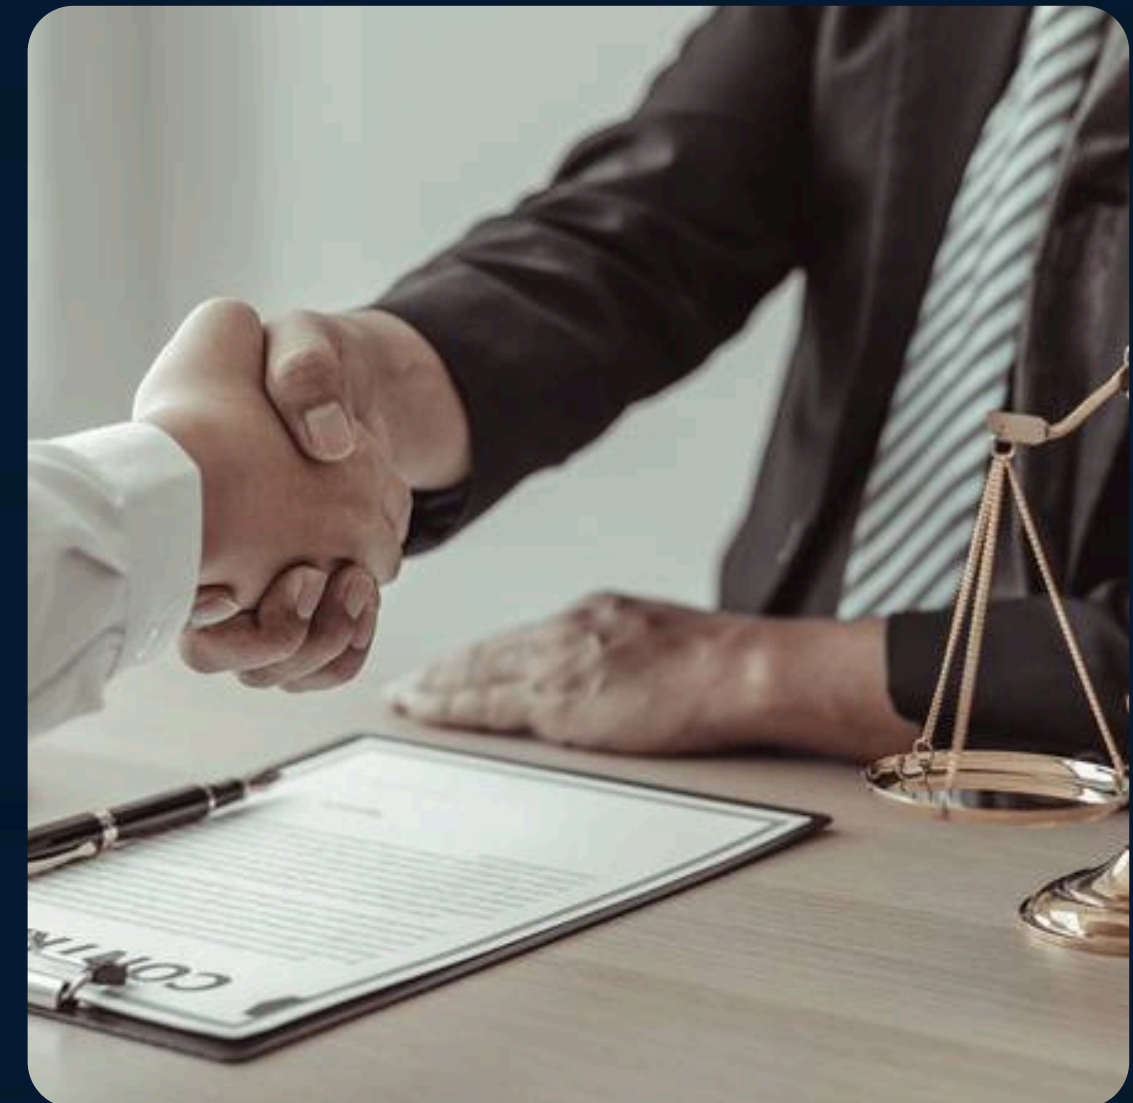

Compliance is also important for fairness. Imagine you are playing a game of football with your friends. If a person doesn't follow the rules and uses their hands to carry the ball, the game is not fair anymore. The same happens in business. When companies follow the law, they compete in a fair way. For example, all companies must pay their taxes. If one company doesn't pay taxes, they have an unfair advantage over the others.

---

Compliance is also important for fairness. Imagine you are playing a game of football with your friends. If a person doesn't follow the rules and uses their hands to carry the ball, the game is not fair anymore. The same happens in business. When companies follow the law, they compete in a fair way. For example, all companies must pay their taxes. If one company doesn't pay taxes, they have an unfair advantage over the others.

1. How does compliance help to create fairness in business?

Compliance is also important for fairness. Imagine you are playing a game of football with your friends. If a person doesn't follow the rules and uses their hands to carry the ball, the game is not fair anymore. The same happens in business. When companies follow the law, they compete in a fair way. For example, all companies must pay their taxes. If one company doesn't pay taxes, they have an unfair advantage over the others.

---

1. How does compliance help to create fairness in business?

2. What happens if a company does not pay its taxes?

Finally, compliance helps build trust. When we know that people and organizations follow the rules, we trust them more. For example, when you go to a restaurant, you trust that the food is clean and safe because the restaurant follows health regulations.

Finally, compliance helps build trust. When we know that people and organizations follow the rules, we trust them more. For example, when you go to a restaurant, you trust that the food is clean and safe because the restaurant follows health regulations.

When a bank follows financial rules, we trust them with our money. If an organization breaks the rules, it loses its reputation and people stop trusting it. Trust is very valuable, but it takes a long time to build and only a moment to lose.

Finally, compliance helps build trust. When we know that people and organizations follow the rules, we trust them more. For example, when you go to a restaurant, you trust that the food is clean and safe because the restaurant follows health regulations.

When a bank follows financial rules, we trust them with our money. If an organization breaks the rules, it loses its reputation and people stop trusting it. Trust is very valuable, but it takes a long time to build and only a moment to lose.

1. How does following rules build trust with customers?

Finally, compliance helps build trust. When we know that people and organizations follow the rules, we trust them more. For example, when you go to a restaurant, you trust that the food is clean and safe because the restaurant follows health regulations.

When a bank follows financial rules, we trust them with our money. If an organization breaks the rules, it loses its reputation and people stop trusting it. Trust is very valuable, but it takes a long time to build and only a moment to lose.

1. How does following rules build trust with customers?

2. What happens to an organization if it loses its reputation?

In conclusion, compliance is not just about following boring rules. It is about keeping people safe, making things fair, and building trust. Whether we are talking about traffic, business, or sports, rules help us live and work together in harmony. It is the responsibility of every person to know and follow the rules of their community. By doing this, we all contribute to a safer and more just society.

In conclusion, compliance is not just about following boring rules. It is about keeping people safe, making things fair, and building trust. Whether we are talking about traffic, business, or sports, rules help us live and work together in harmony. It is the responsibility of every person to know and follow the rules of their community. By doing this, we all contribute to a safer and more just society.

1) What are the three main benefits of compliance mentioned in the text?

In conclusion, compliance is not just about following boring rules. It is about keeping people safe, making things fair, and building trust. Whether we are talking about traffic, business, or sports, rules help us live and work together in harmony. It is the responsibility of every person to know and follow the rules of their community. By doing this, we all contribute to a safer and more just society.

- 1) What are the three main benefits of compliance mentioned in the text?
- 2) What is our personal responsibility regarding compliance?

Thank You

COMMITTED TO COMPLIANCE EXCELLENCE

Partnering with you for trust,
integrity, and responsible growth.

Contact:

luis.cordoba@elac.com.mx

www.elac.com.mx

7228905442

ENGLISH LAW
& COMPLIANCE